Loyal British Possession

Island of Barbados Abjures Slavery

This interesting article appeared in the Western Weekly Leader.

The Barbados, in the island of Barbados, of three hundred years of uninterrupted Parliamentary rule is now abjuring slavery. It is the first of its kind in the world, and its significance, with an area of only 160 square miles and a population of approximately 100,000, is that the "light blue island" has been one of the British Crown within the Empire.

The Barbados is one of the most strenuous, active and fertile islands in the West Indies. This is partly due to the fact that Barbados has a very irrigating canal. Moreover, the free government of Barbados has enjoyed for over a period of nearly three hundred years a reputation for its high standard of living and its high standard of education.

The little island of a spirit of loyalty which has been manifested in its citizens for many years.
